Reading Practice Tests - Print/e-book Download. and Reading Practice Tests. ECPE Study Material ECPE teacher's guide with answer key. Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Judea at the time of Daniel. The question in the passage appears to be: (A) an explanation of the "something done by God" clause. Thus, you can find the answers to the multiple-choice question and gain some insight into the reading passage. However, some of the questions will be harder, and you may be given the chance to answer them. Items 2, 4, and 6 are answered questions. Let's get started! There are many more questions to answer as you progress through your reading passages. The questions are not graded in any way. Items 7, 8, 11, 12, and 13 are for the written response section. Writing a good answer to the question or questions will require more than a few words. The writer must state his or her own opinion. Using a strong tone is also a part of this skill. Although you may use your favorite writing tools, you must be prepared to write a lot. You must write your answers in the space provided for them. You must also write a conclusion for the passage or reading. The conclusion should sum up the point of the passage or reading. In writing this conclusion, you should focus on the point or points you made in your answer. You may also refer to the facts you have included in your answer. The conclusion will need to demonstrate the fact that you did your best in the readings. When answering "Why?" questions, you can cite specific facts from your readings. In some cases, it is acceptable to use only your understanding of the passage or reading. When answering "Why?" questions, you cannot rely on your own knowledge or understanding. In this question, you will need to do some research. You may be given a half page to explain the statement. You may also be given a reading passage to answer. In Item 3, the time limit is short, so be sure to pick the best answer. Logical questions like this one require you to use all of the information you have been given. When answering the reading passage, you may need to refer to the information
