I tried adjusting the scale, but it will not change the position of the streamer. Is there a way to change the position of the streamer in this 3d environment? A: Go into it's parent node. Set the position and rotation in the parent (obviously not the position and rotation of the streamer itself). In brief: Interest rates were increased while the growth rate of GDP was decreased, somewhat counter-intuitive because higher rates imply higher investment and thus a higher growth rate. This is because the Fed believes investment will increase by the end of this week, especially in response to economic news that has been quite troubling. As expected, consumers are struggling. The non-residential sector, where most employment is created, is contracting, and residential construction is little changed. Sectors that are less sensitive to the overall economy, manufacturing and business services, are growing. Financial conditions remain easy and the unemployment rate remains low. For the second quarter, growth was 2.6%. Growth has increased steadily since the first quarter and is considerably stronger than what the Fed predicted. Investment is up and exports are up. There are concerns about the strength of the economy, as the GDP and income growth have been quite strong, and consumer spending remains weak. On the upside, the labor market has been improving. The unemployment rate has dropped from 8.1% in the first quarter to 7.7% in the second. Businesses are spending on equipment and software as investment and sales have picked up. The third quarter is expected to be moderate to growth. The Fed's decision will be released at 12.30pm on Wednesday, and will not be a surprise. Methodology: The Federal Reserve's Senior Economic Official is responsible for monitoring and analyzing economic conditions throughout 82138339de
