Megatronic Void is a Victorian Sci-fi adventure game, a VN inspired by Capcom's Valkyrie Profile and Star Ocean series. A beautiful RPG with hack and slash that navigates multiple worlds to meet the challenges of outposts and settlements. Currently, Megatronic Void is a fully playable beta. There are 4 girls and 3 boys, but the world needs more characters! No gender is locked out. Character cosmetics may be unlocked via both in-game achievements and a virtual currency. The full version is fully funded. Preview: New Character Made by Anthill9 An unforgettable dialogue to the reviewer A quick glimpse at a peaceful life for your character I'm out the door like a kid on Christmas. It's a beautiful day. In the city, the shops and houses are jostling each other in the morning sun. The buildings are densely packed, which means plenty of shade for a walk. When you walk down a street, the sound of footsteps echo from the pavement. Shops sell electronics, fresh food, furniture and clothing. Plants and flowers line the sidewalks. Kids play games in the plaza, and adults sit on low stools drinking coffee, reading books, and talking quietly. People aren't too concerned with this strange new world. Sure, there are limits to their life, but this is a daily routine. You know what this world reminds me of? A ticket to a wonderful show. What makes a show or game special is the people who attend it. The people on stage or at the booth are the attraction. After all, the show is only as special as those who are in it. "I grew up in a small town in the middle of nowhere. When you're a kid, the world is small. Sure, we have TV, and there is at least a million channels, but we watch way too many of them. You'd think there would be enough of real stories, but there isn't. We'd see the same movies over and over, until we realised it was a pattern. The same jokes, the same songs. My room was bright, had red walls. It was a safe place to be, but at night it was very dark. There were many nights I felt like I was going crazy. There are times when I want to go crazy, just let loose in a final bit

There are no "side quests" in Horizon and no "levels", these are a huge advantage for new players who want to play and start quickly in the game. Beginners and veterans will have similar play time: maybe 30 hours for a new player, 60 hours for a veteran. "Noob - Les Sans-Factions" is the first transmedia game created in the world. A large part of the success of the transmedia project is due to the cooperation of the different actors: the video game developers and publishers (DirectX, Eidetic, Blue Waffle, Oniken), the book publishers (Wuxi, Centre National du Livre), the creators and artists (Fabien Fournier and Anne-Laure Jarnet), the actors (Orchard, UKôte, Mercire, Fedora, L'abeille) and the comic artist (Dirk), all necessary to the success of the game with their various disciplines. "Noob - Les Sans-Factions" is available on the Xbox 360, PlayStation 3, PC, Wii and Nintendo 3DS. About the Author: "Noob - Les Sans-Factions" was written by a team of 8 people composed of: - Fabien Fournier, writer and creator of the universe of Noob; - Jean-Marc Timbaud, comic artist; - Jérémy Moreau, writer and manager; - Han Lemo and Mathieu Gora, designers; - Josselin Broc, technical artist; - Anne-Laure Jarnet, star of the universe of Noob; - and finally Manu Echard - the old man who designed the characters - the Noob Guild website. About Anne-Laure Jarnet: Following Noob, Anne-Laure Jarnet is the main character of the series in which she plays the geeky, often immature Jeanette. Anne-Laure Jarnet's character was described by some people as "a natural comic talent", "very funny", "as big of a hit with European comics publishers as Franquin is in France". About Fabien Fournier: "Noob - Les Sans-Factions" was the first transmedia game for Fabien Fournier. As a young adult, he made more than 20 comic albums and has become a regular on French TV. Since 2008, Fabien Fournier has more than 20 stories c9d1549cdd

2D Adventure is a 2D platformer game that requires you to explore an infinity of space through the game over 200 planets. You have to find a way to stop the evil Paploo and his absurd army of monsters, that are stealing all the energy from the planets. On your way, you can explore to find hidden powerup that will help you overcome the enemies. All the enemies are cute, and you will love their reactions and animations. You will also find hidden stuff on your way, and sometimes there will be a character telling you about an event on the planet. Each planet has a story, and you are able to meet many characters along the way. You will be able to play in two game modes: Story or Survival. Story: It's the normal story mode, it will take you to 7 planets and the main goal is to get to the end. You will have two different classes and you will have to collect as much crystals as you can to find some upgrades. Survival: In Survival mode, you can travel through all the planets in the game over 7 days. You will have to survive to beat the monsters, and you will have to keep collecting crystals to upgrade your weapon. On top of that, you will find gems that will help you to powerup. You will also find new enemies during the survival time, and that's what makes the survival mode fun! Readme Came with Wii U and Nintendo 3DS versions of this game. Updated: Dec 27, 2018 Instruction For Use: You will find powerups on the way to find a way to beat the monsters. Each planet has a different powerup. There is also a save feature that will allow you to save your progress and load it. The powerup that you will have to collect and save to unlock them, will be shown during the game. Share Game Screenshots: Game Videos: 2D Adventure This is a 2D open world game. You can explore many planets. You will be able to get more powerups by finding all the powerups on the way. While the 2D perspective doesn't take the advantage of the 3D capabilities, the movement is very smooth. You will have to explore many spaces while collecting everything on the way to find a way to defeat the monsters. Story It
