The restaurant was a little noisy but very festive. The menu was wide ranging so I didn't plan my order well. I ordered: 1) Chicken on brown rice with shrimp stir fry and steamed vegetables 2) Shingo with green beans and ponzu dipping sauce 3) Kamameshi with miso soup 4) Spicy Asian salad with chicken, seafood, and cucumbers. I skipped the 3rd one due to the server's lack of professionalism. For the dish in the middle, I thought that the chicken tasted a little dry and the rice with shrimp tasted bland (taste and texture). The Kamameshi was ok, especially with the miso soup. The spicy Asian salad was a little bland and the veggies were slightly tasteless. Overall, I was extremely disappointed with my order. We were a group of six and this was our first time to this location. We had a fantastic meal. We ordered appetizers for all and I was pleasantly surprised that they really were generous with the portion sizes. The waiter was very attentive and made us all feel very welcome, even as a group of six he made sure everything went well. The salads were fresh and full of flavor. The entrees were even better. My husband's Japanese egg-drop soup was the best I've ever tasted. The noodles were a bit on the thicker side, but were cooked perfectly. The portions of the hibachi shrimp were huge, especially for $8. I think at a better price point I would have gone and bought a second plate. The service was wonderful and the food was well prepared. I
