crash bandicoot 2: cortex strikes back is a perfect 2d platformer. its not one of the best in the series, but its hard to deny its greatness. crash bandicoot 2 has a classic 90s feel to it that really makes the game stand out. the game is very fast paced and chock-full of charm. it has a very simple premise of being a descendant of the original crash and has to save his sister cortex from evil dr. neo cortex. the game follows the same formula of the first game and sticks to it fairly well. the only real difference is that the level design and physics are slightly improved. the 3d visuals are easy on the eyes and the levels are easy to navigate. the music in crash bandicoot 2 is also a classic. the first game had two themes, one for the cortex/crash saga and one for the crash saga. cortex strikes back has three themes, one for each trilogy. the music is presented in a very simple way, and it is a blast to listen to. it just captures your attention and doesnt let go. the music makes the game even more fun and adds to the overall experience. its easy to switch between the themes, and there are tons of remixes of the music throughout the game! theres not much to complain about in crash bandicoot 2. the controls arent as tight as they should be, the levels are not as great as the first game, and the characters are a tad bit more annoying than in the first game. but crash bandicoot 2 still feels like a classic. its a good game and i recommend you grab it! your favorite marsupial, crash bandicoot, is back! hes enhanced, entranced and ready-to-dance with the n. sane trilogy game collection. now you can experience crash bandicoot like never before. spin, jump, wump and repeat as you take on the epic challenges and adventures through the three games that started it all, crash bandicoot, crash bandicoot 2: cortex strikes back and crash bandicoot 3: warped. relive all your favorite crash moments in their fully-remastered graphical glory and get ready to put some umph in your wump!crash bandicoot n. sane trilogy stormy ascent level!
