i have adobe illustrator, and i have a mac. i want to get my serial number. i want to get adobe illustrator cc 2015. i would like to make something for my 3 year old daughter. i would like to make a card for my daughter. i have tried to get it. i do not know how to do it. if you know how please help me. if you want to switch to the older version of the app (cs6), you need to stop using the older version of the app (cs6). once you stop using the older version of the app, adobe will remove it from your system. if you decide to remove it from your system, you can then download the older version of the app. it's time to start a new chapter in your journey to becoming a master of adobe illustrator. with the training and support you receive as part of a membership, you'll be able to develop a new skill set, hone your existing ones, and add to your portfolio. start now. sign up now! you need to work in a group of people where the exception is the person youre working with. otherwise youre going to have a hard time with getting a serial number. it is a lottery if youre the one person in the team that happens to get a serial number. youll just get a bunch of other people to finish off your serial number. youll have to make sure that youre not the one that gets the serial number. once youve done this, youll find it easier to get a serial number. its not a glamorous process, but its fine if you want to upgrade your copy of the software. it shouldnt be needed. im not very good at this stuff, but i recently had a deactivation problem. i got a deactivation code from adobe. the number i was given was for a product that i had not purchased. i changed it to the one for a product that i had bought and it worked. i didnt do anything other than the obvious. you dont need to do anything more than call and tell them what you need. theyre very helpful.
