Get ready to ride down the White Cliffs of Dover and watch the spectacular from the top. A good collection of waves from the waves of the sea. This is a nostalgic picture of the White Cliffs of Dover in Great Britain. The White cliffs are famous for their majestic beauty. The White Cliffs of Dover rise 80 feet in several layers of pylons and cliffs all along the coastline. This high-resolution picture looks great at high resolutions such as 1024x768. This high resolution digital photo will definitely make your desktop look good and make your screen a wow-factor. The white cliffs of Dover are one of the most famous sights in England, Britain and Europe. They are part of a promontory of rocks that extends out into the English Channel, dividing the Kent and English coasts of England. Overlooking the English Channel, the cliffs rise 80 ft (24 m) above the sea. The Dover Cliffs were used as a scenic backdrop for many films including "101 Dalmatians". The white cliffs can be seen in the background as the main characters - Cruella De Vil, Dalmatian puppies, and Peter Pan - escape in the 102 Dalmatian Escape. The film The 39 Steps starring Brian Donlevy and Peter Lawford, is a Hitchcock film that takes place in Dover and it also features the White Cliffs of Dover. Photographed by Canon 70D, ISO-6400, f/11 for 1/3200 sec. "White Cliffs of Dover" is available in high resolution format for $7.99. Click here to order. "The Amazing Race, LIVE! History of Dove World Outreach Center The history of Dove World Outreach Center (formerly Compassion, then Family First) began in 1994 when its founder and current leader, James David Manning, was a twenty-nine year old Baptist.

Manning founded Family First as a ministry to reach out to kids in the inner-city of Cleveland, Ohio. In 1994, he was working for the drug court program at Cuyahoga

County Juvenile Court, serving as a court liaison for kids caught up in the court system. Manning had a strong desire to reach these young people and serve the community, so in 1994, he started a youth group called “Compassion” to do just that. The group was based on the gospel of Jesus Christ, and ran out of an office in Berea, Ohio. By 1996, his ministry had grown into several outreach teams, including the Brownsville/Dallas Team, the Chandler Area Team, and the downtown Cleveland team. In 1996, Manning and a team of tenacious young men and women worked with kids who had been involved with the juvenile court system. One day, they found out about an abandoned old church building in a rough part of downtown Cleveland, a church called “Upper Room.” These kids had never heard about Jesus before. He immediately began talking about the gospel. The first time he ever preached the gospel of Jesus Christ, he had thirty-four kids. It was one of the greatest days of his life. As 2edc1e01e8

The Screensaver is a fun way to keep busy while watching the screen. It can be set as a Clock or as a Screensaver.

The screensaver runs in the background and slowly transitions between pictures of Australian native animals with a unique tune. The Screensaver will run under Vista and Windows XP. You can change the Picture, Time-out and sound-tracks to suit your own personal tastes. Some of the Animals are: Boomerang (Possibly the world's most venomous snake) Possum Stingray Ghost Cockatoo Flying Fox Fairy Wattle (Tree species) Sun Bear Koala (South-Eastern Australia) Wallaby Koala (South-Eastern Australia) Bush Rat Big-scaled Dasyurus Moss Mouse Yellow-footed Mouse Odd-tailed Rat Northern Rivers Mouse Black Rat Carpet

Pocket Grey-headed Flying-fox Skull Wallaby Porcupine European Hedgehog Badger Squirrel Cats Deer Frogs Fish You can make it look as good as you like, the only thing I like is to make it look a little bit like Australia!

Some screen savers and desktop screensavers do not have a dialog box that explains what is going on. I think this screensaver does and it makes it worth the price. My only problem is that it is missing some animals that I have seen in the wild. I don't know if that is something that has been added recently. Saturday, January 26, 2007 T-Shirt Tuesday! So, back in the States we'll all be buying t-shirts all over, all over the place. As I mentioned earlier, if you have a favorite chain in New York, I want to know about it, and, no, not McAlloo's. My favorite is The Apple Store. Well, not actually the store, because I have nothing against the place, they have some great shirts, for a price. Anyway, they have this style of t-shirt that I think is genius. They cost $32, but the price includes shipping. I have always been a sucker for free shipping, so, I always order some. If you read my last post, I'd mentioned that my oldest friend, Josh, had recently gotten married, and that she was having a little
