

Here are the lessons that Yaseen was to transmit to the community. Surah Yaseen is an important surah from the Holy Quran. The main theme of this surah is freedom in Islam. The Muslims have to deliver their slaves, their women and children with no choice but “freedom” and not “submission”. Surah Yaseen means the freedom. It says: Allah says: And the slaves of the Messenger, Is it not as they say? The Qur'an, Chapter 58, verse 23 JHWAAH — The verses that is being described in Surah Yaseen, are by itself the beginning of The Surah yaseen is the beginning of Suratul Ar Rahman, which means the beginning of the voice, the beginning of Allah's Call. Allah is saying the “freedoms”, the “freedom” of The Messenger of Allah, and The Prophet's community in which Islam has been fully accepted and had been delivered. That is the same to the “glory” and “honor” that the Messenger has had. Now this surah is telling the Muslims to be freed from the darkness of slavery. People were in the darkness and darkness is not meant for the Muslim, it is meant for the devil and the disbeliever. The Devil called the disbeliever in order to cause the darkness, to use the false religion, and darkness. That means that the devil and the disbeliever are the darkness and darkness cannot belong to the true religion, true people. This surah Yaseen teaches the Muslims about the true religion of Islam, the religion that is created by Allah (SWT). Islam is not an error. Islam is not false religion. Islam is not heresy, all of these lies that Satan does not want to appear before the true religion. The devil wants to come before the false religions, but he will not be able to appear before the true religion. The false religions will be eliminated, those faiths that want to eliminate the true religion will be eliminated and the true religion will prevail. The true religion is the religion that will succeed, one that will be established as the destiny, one that will be followed by humans and angels. The light will be brought into this world and “the last hour” will be established. The light is the true religion, and the false religion that the Devil will come before is
